Camp Timberledge

Camp Timberledge is a Christ-centered camp for children and youth, grades 4 - 12, nestled in 270 acres of woodland and lakes in the Poconos of northeastern Pennsylvania. Its programs are sponsored by the New York Conference of the Free Methodist Church, and minister to the whole camper: physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually.

Camp Timberledge is a member of Christian Camp and Conference Association and is licensed by the State of Pennsylvania.

Camp Timberledge does not discriminate on the basis of color, ethnic origin, disability, race, or gender.

Junior Camp accepts children entering grades 4-5 in the fall. Intermediate Camp is for children entering grades 6-7 in the fall. Teens entering grades 8-9 in the fall attend Young Teen Camp. Senior Teen Camp is for high school sophomores through 2006 graduates.

What are the Provisions for Health and Safety?

Adult supervision; plenty of good food; daily rest period; supervised waterfront; life jackets worn in boats, kayaks and canoes; adult counselors; EMT and/or resident nurse; doctor on call.
